

Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form

The Bond Board is committed to achieving equality of opportunity in employment. To help us to monitor the effectiveness of our equal opportunities policy we also ask you to provide information about your age, gender, religion, ethnicity and sexuality. You do not need to provide this information to apply for employment at The Bond Board. If you choose to provide this information, it will be used on a statistical basis only i.e. we will keep a record of the number of applicants from various groups for each post. This information is always separated from your application when it is received and is not shared with any members of the recruitment panel.

By completing this Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form, you agree to your Equal Opportunities Data being used anonymously for statistical and monitoring purposes of The Bond Board.
